foreword

*Through the medium of television, we present a resume of the happenings here
at J.J.C. in the 1951-1952 Crossroads.*

dedication

H. E. BLAINE, A.B., A.M.

To you, the first Dean of Joplin Jr. College, we dedicate the nineteen fifty-two Crossroads. Your guidance and understanding during the years between 1938 and 1947 provided the foundation on which the college has been built.

enrollment and mixer

1. Merlyn and Ed's "service with a smile" policy.

2. Charles, Ted, and Jim look pretty glum after parting with those greenbacks.

3. A strictly formal occasion, mind you.

4. Hal furnishes music while Helen leads the singing.

campus snaps

1. They laugh as Mr. Gockel looks on. 2. Mr. Heater and Mr. Chase want to know how it feels to win a fight — so naturally they ask Charlie. 3. Two of Miss Reid's Champion bowlers. 4. What's so funny, Jim? 5. Jill and Jeannine applaud Gene's big smile. 6. Everyone meets in front of the water fountain. 7. Bob and Jo Anna pose for the photographer. 8. John and Marcia. 9. Everyone campaigned vigorously for Student Senate officers.

We, the editors of the 1951 - 1952 Crossroads, have enjoyed bringing to you the telecast of happenings of the past year. May the future be as enjoyable as the past years spent at J.J.C.
